Dear Clarke: Where do you stand on your Menlo Park memorial plan? I might perhaps follow it up when in town the coming week - if you have had any encouragement from worthwhile quarters. I shall be at the N.Y.C.

Wednesday and Thursday.

I am getting some awfully nice letters about the "Forty Years". Although busy now on my life of William Stanley, I have just received invitations to do two more books! I may be going strong, and there may be "barking the old dog yet" - but there are limits! I am however going briefly to England in January.
